When you rearrange the letters in...
Presbyterian...it becomes...Best in prayer
Astronomer...Moon starrer.
The eyes...They see

- Dormitory...Dirty Room
- Slot machines...Cash lost in me
- Animosity...Is no amity
- Election results...Lies-let's recount
- Snooze alarms...Alas! No more z's
- Decimal point...I'm "dot in place"
- Eleven plus two...Twelve plus one

With the Super Bowl up-on us, it seems as if the letters have been arranged to have the Giants playing at Indy instead of us. But parties will still be enjoyed, bets will still be made, and commercials will still be laughed at.

On another level, the diocese launches its annual Bishop's Appeal this weekend, which enables the local Church to do its ministry. Let's do some rearranging here too, in order to ensure our meeting our parishes' goals. With the money that was saved by some of us in not going to Indianapolis, this should be no problem, right? Funny how spending thousands on a Super Bowl just seems like something we would have to do, but giving that same amount to the Church would seem ridiculous. Let's do a little rearranging then, so that our commitment to the Church might be #1.

Cheering us on!

Fr. Dave

Please keep Fr. José in your prayers, so he has a speedy recovery, as he recently had back surgery.

Come join us again for Mass next week!

Next week we encounter a man who believes Jesus can do anything he wishes, even curing leprosy. Can you hear Jesus saying to you, "Yes, I will it. Be made clean." Join us to consider the places where you want Jesus to cure you, perhaps even getting his help to deepen your belief that Jesus does desire your wholeness.

Parish Offices Closed

St. Philip and St. Bernard Parish Offices will be closed on Monday, February 13 and Tuesday, February 14. We will be attending a joint Parish Office Retreat.

We will keep you in our prayers.

If you need anything in the February 18-19 bulletin please submit by Wednesday, February 8. Thank You!

On Following Jesus Today

By: Kristina M. DeNeve

Evangelization and Welcoming Director Diocese of Green Bay

Imagine the scene of today's Gospel: some stranger comes to town and starts doing miraculous things. Word gets out fast and everyone from everywhere comes to get their own miracle. You are Jesus, sharing God's love publically for the first time ever....and people are noticing! Super busy, more and more people coming, what do you do?

Most of us would probably respond like Jesus, throwing ourselves more wholeheartedly into our work, doing more and more with our days, "For this purpose I have come."

However, Jesus did not just come 2000 years ago to help a few thousand people he encountered during three years of active ministry. The resurrection and ascension tell us that Jesus continues ministering, saying to each one of us, "For this purpose I have come."

Imagine Jesus surrounded by all those people. But, also imagine that you are there. You have traveled from Northeast Wisconsin to see if Jesus might help you. Surprisingly, he sees you in the crowd, comes to you. Now's your chance - tell him what you are looking for!

Children and Money – Allowances

A woman called the other day wondering what I thought about allowances for younger children. She and her husband had two different perspectives. He felt allowances should be earned. She, on the other hand, remembered her mom being very generous with her and her siblings when they were growing up. Allowances weren't linked to specific tasks and chores, but were in the form of a gift. She had fond memories of her mom's generosity and love, and wanted to pass along those same memories to her children.

Allowances fall into something of a hybrid category, and how we handle them will depend on the goals we are trying to achieve through them. Having a great deal of German in my heritage, it seems natural that allowances be used to help children understand the value of hard work. After all, St. Paul said, "If any one will not work, let him not eat" (2 Thess 3:10).

With that said, the woman made an important point. Parental love should be a reflection of God's love. And God's love is a free gift. As the Catechism says, "Grace is favor, the free and undeserved help that God gives us to respond to his call to become children of God, adoptive sons, partakers of the divine nature and of eternal life" (CCC 1996).
